A sizzling $560,000 raised for FightMND

The nationwide sausage sizzle which took place at Bunnings stores across Australia on Saturday 17 May raised more than half a million dollars to go directly towards motor neurone disease (MND) research and care initiatives.

Bunnings is proud to be supporting FightMND's 'Big Freeze 11' campaign, with activity from more than 300 stores generating $562,000 to help improve the quality of life and find treatments for those living with MND.

Bunnings Chief Operating Officer, Ryan Baker, said: "We couldn't be prouder of our team's efforts and hard work to make Saturday's sizzle such a success for FightMND, our seventh year backing the campaign.

"A huge thank you and well done to all Bunnings team members who helped out at the sausage sizzle as well as all the local communities across Australia who did their bit to support Big Freeze 11."

Bunnings customers came together to get around the campaign in a big way by buying iconic Big Freeze 11 beanies as well as buckets, pet toys and sausages, with every item sold helping to get closer to the cure.

FightMND fundraising efforts will continue at Bunnings stores across Australia with beanies, buckets and pet toys on sale until stocks last.
